Pozzobon Shines at the Canadian Finals Rodeo

By Hope Raley

Carman Pozzobon is a force to be reckoned with when she is on the back of any horse, but even more so when she is piloting her great mare RipN Lady. Pozzobon and "Ripp", as she affectionately calls the mare, stayed consistent and did exactly what they needed to in Edmonton to clench their first Canadian Professional Rodeo Association Barrel Racing Championship.

This being their second qualification, Pozzobon and "Ripp" knew what to expect this year and what to do to leave the year end champs.

"This year my approach was different than it was last year," explained Pozzobon. "Last year I wanted to be quick and fast and that didn't work for Ripp. This year I made sure that we were smooth and consistent, and the clock would reflect that in the end."

"Ripp" is 7-years-old and is by Frenchmans Guy son, Frenchs Hula Guy. Frenchs Hula Guy has seen a lot of success with his offspring, especially with Pozzobon in the driver's seat. "Ripp's" dam is Bijou Betali who is by Eli Beta-streak. Having had a lot of success with Frenchs Hula Guy offspring, Pozzobon has been very instrumental in putting him on the map as a standout sire.

"I absolutely love the Frenchs Hula Guy colts and hope to ride as many more as I can! They love to run barrels and take their job seriously."

Pozzobon explains "Ripp" as a "all-or-nothing" kind-of horse. "She is an overachiever for sure. She always gives 110% and she is trying her tail off no matter what you point her at. She is all business and that is why she is a winner," explained Pozzobon.

With a total of 6 runs made during their stay in Edmonton, Pozzobon and "Ripp" stayed impressively solid placing in all but 1 round.

"Our runs were great all week. She made the same run each time I sent her down the alley and she left the right amount of space between each barrel. I couldn't be any prouder of her!" Prior to the CFR, Pozzobon took "Ripp" up to the mountains to do some 'good for the soul' riding to clear both their minds to prepare for Edmonton.

"I gave her 2 weeks off after the Canadian Barrel Horse Incentive and brought her back and did a lot of riding out. I worked her on the barrels once before the CFR," Pozzobon said.

With plans of heading south for the winter, Pozzobon hopes to continue her winning streak into the winter rodeos and maybe look at a qualification for next year's NFR.

"I will either head south soon, or I will stay up here in Canada for a bit longer and stay consistent on my futurity colts for next year. I have some really nice ones for next year, so I am going to have to juggle both the rodeos and the futurities."

Winning over $34,000 for the week, Pozzobon and "Ripp" also claimed several awards including Season Leader, Horse Of The Year, Horse With The Most Heart and Canadian Professional Rodeo Champion Barrel Racer.

Pozzobon won her tight title race by just $183 over the red hot Jaime Hinton and The Goob (Ojs Tex Wood). Hinton moved from 9th in the standings going into the CFR to Reserve Champions by placing in all 6 rounds of the CFR and winning the Average. She won 2nd in 4 of the 6 rounds on the way to CFR earnings of $48,303. Another star of the CFR was the 13 yr old Taylor Manning who rode Good Little Nick to wins in Rounds 3 & 4 and CFR earnings of $27,889.

Just Ducky -- Ryann Pedone & Tres Ducks In A Row Take JB Quarter Horses Futurity Championship

By Tanya Randall

Veteran aged event champion Ryann Pedone topped the JB Quarter Horses Futurity Championship Round with Tres Ducks In A Row ("Ducky"), owned and bred by Shoppa Ranch. The Futurity Championships was worth $5,786. The winning time of 15.200 was also worth $1,200 for placing fourth in Open Race 2 on a carryover.

"She's really starting to come into her own," said Pedone. "I've waited patiently for her."

Pedone had two horses in the futurity—Ducky and High Point Performance Horses, Feel The Sting—both qualified for the Championship Round.

"In the Qualifying Round, I just wanted to make smooth clean runs and make sure I got back to the championship round," she said. The qualifying round splits the field in half with the top 54 going to a championship round and bottom half running in the Consolation. Although no money is awarded in the Qualifying Round, riders have the option to carryover their times to the two Open Races of the Elite Extravaganza, the host event for the Futurity.

Pedone and Ducky had the 11th fastest qualifying time, a 15.462. They were on the bottom of the ground with that run, so Pedone was excited to have top of the ground in the Championship Round. "I just knew if she just kept her feet moving she'd have a shot at winning it," she said. "She's super fast. She's really easy to ride. Her style is not the prettiest style; you don't go up there to watch that mare run. She'll shut the clock off even though she doesn't have this breathtaking style.

Pedone also said Ducky is very honest.

"She's super easy to ride. She doesn't want to get a barrel. She just kind of runs around them and keeps moving forward. She's one of those horses that if I know she feels good I have a lot of confidence when I run her."

Ducky, a 4-year-old sorrel mare, is by leading race and barrel horse sire Tres Seis out of proven barrel horse VF Elmers Lil Sis, by Burrs First Down out of a Duck Dance (TB) daughter.

Pedone said she could tell from the beginning that Ducky was talented, but she had some quirks that forced her to be patient.

"I didn't know her momma when she was young, but they say she was like that too," said Pedone. "She ended up growing out of it and Kristin Shoppa did really well with her. I think she gets that from her momma."

As Pedone said, she had to be patient with Ducky. She started her career running about a second off at the BFA Juvenile. They won the 2D Average at the Classic Equine Futurity, but left Arizona running low 17's on a WPRA Standard Pattern.

"At Lance Graves, she won second in the slot race there. She got a little sore at Diamonds & Dirt, but came back in the Top 40 there. She had some shining moments here and there, but I really think she came back over the summer and really came into her own."

Ducky was reserve at the Cornhusker Futurity, placed high in the 1D at the Mega and won the Futurity Sidepot at the BBR Territorial Finals after winning the second race there.

"She's a really tough mare; she's just really quirky," said Pedone. "Everything I've done with her is a lot of slow work. I don't do a lot of runs on her. She's won quite a bit this year. She's a big-time athlete. She's been a really cool mare."

Ducky has the AQHA World Show this week and then will get a little break before the BFA World Championships.

Pedone wanted to thank all of her horses' owners for their continued belief in her abilities—Shoppa Ranch, Fulton Performance Horses, High Point Performance Horses, Steve and Derby Cone, Jeanette Nelson, Sondra Blair, the Colombe brothers, the Nelson, the Suitors, the Henderson family and the Ashleys—her many friends who have supported her and helped her over the weekend—the Johnson family, especially Ava Claire Johnson, Don Lee, Lisa Downs, Sierra Emmett, Jody Green, Jayci Byler and her father Lee Pedone as well as her farrier Clint Sherlin and Andrea Enzenauer of WD Feed.

An Elite NFR Prep for Kassie Mowry & Firewatermakemehappy in Waco

By Tanya Randall

Multiple aged event champion Kassie Mowry & Firewatermakemehappy ("Junior") dominated the Elite Extravaganza, held Nov. 9-12 at the Extraco Events Center in Waco, Texas. The Dublin, Texas, team won both Open races in commanding fashion, earning $6,000 for turning in the only sub-15 second runs of the event.

"It's a well ran, consistent barrel race," said Mowry. "Everyone is great to work with there and I always look forward to going. We can bring our open horses, our futurity horses and sale horses and get a lot done."

Mowry was using the event to prepare Junior for the 10 rounds of the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in December.

"I'm hoping that I don't have get off of him," said Mowry. "I'm trying to get him as ready as I can. He normally doesn't make that many runs in a month, or sometimes six months, so it's different for him, getting ready for something like that. We really pick and choose where he goes. I'm just trying to get him fit."

Junior is owned by Martha Smith, who purchased him from his breeder Karma Loftin as a weanling. The 7-year-old gelding is by leading barrel horse sire Firewaterontherocks out of the blue hen mare Juniors Country Girl, by Deep Note Jr.

Mowry has trained and ridden Junior since he was a long 2-year-old. He was a futurity standout with more than $150,000 in earnings. Together Mowry and Junior swept the Elite Rodeo Athletes Finals in Dallas last November, won their way into Rodeo Houston via a San Angelo Pro Rodeo victory, and sealed their trip to the National Finals Rodeo with an impressive victory at Rodeo Houston.

At Waco, Mowry and Junior made magic runs late at night to ac-three horses in the sale demonstrations early that evening. "I felt like he packed me through there. I really wasn't much help to him. He just did his job. I was really happy for that."

Their second run was a 14.919.

"His second run was so typical of him," she said. "He's so consistent. He was really snappy and ran really hard. He's feeling good and really in shape. I feel like he's in better shape now than he's been anytime this year that I've ran him."

Although Robin Weaver's VQ Sucker Punch is just a phone call away, Mowry is hoping that she can stick with Junior.

"I'm really hoping to stay on Junior," she said. "It's kind of our last hurrah, so I want to make the best of it. He deserves it."

Mowry also ran three horses in the futurity, after having turned out Girls Dig Fame, the horse that started her on her journey to the NFR by placing in the first round at the pro rodeo in San Angelo, Texas, due to recurring abscesses. She placed on A French Lady in the Futurity Consolation, and BR Golden Leader and Mr JB 136 each won checks in the Open on carryover times.

"It was a bittersweet weekend," said Mowry. "Those were my last runs on them. I also had three in the sale. I went there with two trailers and came back with three horses out of it."

With Mowry running at the NFR, Ashley Schafer will run Mr JB 136 at the BFA World Championships for his new owner Julie Williams. Hallie Hansen took home A French Lady, who now has Brazilian owners. BR Golden Leader, who captured the Ardmore Futurity with Mowry, will go BFA with his owner Whitney Davidson.

Mowry said the sale was stressful, but she was pleased with where her sale horses went.

"We were happy with where they went, most importantly," she said. "Everyone was happy, so that was good. It was really, really stressful for me. I got really sick for the sale previews. I was so nervous for that. I was more nervous for that than anything. You have two minutes to show your colts and that's hard. But, I thought they worked good and I was happy with where they went and hope they keep progressing."

Willis Wows the Competition at the No Bull Finale

By Hope Raley

Chester, South Carolina multiple futurity, derby and rodeo winner Leslie Willis was the winner-winner-chicken-dinner this past weekend at the No Bull Finale held in Fletcher, North Carolina. Willis piloted her insanely talented partner, Gimme Da Money, to the tune of $5,000 in the short round & $12,010 on the weekend, claiming her first No Bull Finale Championship.

Gimme Da Money is a 7-year-old gelding by Tres Seis and out of Da Money by Mr Eye Opener. "Trouble" was trained by Abby Person (Pursifull) and the Willis' purchased him at the BFA when he was 3-years-old.

"Abby was running him in the juvenile at the BFA and he caught my husband's eye. I wasn't sure at first, mainly because I haven't ridden many horses that I haven't trained myself, but looking back, I am very grateful for my husband's impeccable taste in horses," laughed Willis.

While it took Willis almost a year to figure out the talented "Trouble", she is grateful that she stayed "hooked", even thru times where it didn't seem like it would work.

"It dang sure took us awhile to start clicking and winning. I think that most finished horses, when sold to another rider, can take anywhere from 6 months to a year, or longer to get in "tune" with. I know a lot of people that have bought finished horses expecting to win right off the bat and that is a fairytale. Yes, it can happen, but more times than not it will take some time to get to that point. I think that is something that every barrel racer needs to keep in mind if they are looking for a finished horse. Don't get easily discouraged!"

Willis was quick to add that asking for help never goes out of style and it is ok to get help from more than one person.

“Some peoples training styles may fit you, and some may not. Also, whatever bit the previous rider/trainer was using on said horse may not work for your hands. It is a trial and error process,” explained Willis.

Winning the No Bull Finale this year was icing on the cake for Willis as she has come very close the last couple of years. “I was second last year and the year before that, I ran the fastest time and then I hit a barrel in the short round. I am tickled to finally have that monkey off my back!”

Willis explains “Trouble’s” style as quick.

“He doesn’t waste any time, especially around a barrel. He gets to his turn and he is out of there as fast as you can blink your eye. I always joke that one of these days I will probably hit the dirt on the first barrel because that is his hardest turning barrel. Several times I have been up around his neck hanging on!”

Hitting a barrel in the first round, Willis knew that she needed to be clean and fast in the second round to make it back for the short round. She capitalized on that and won second in the second round with a 14.134.

In the short round, Willis wanted to make the same run that she did in the second round, but most importantly she wanted to get around all three barrels.

“He worked great in the short round. He never got me unseated, which is always a plus, and our first two turns were crazy fast. I couldn’t have asked for any more perfect of a run,” Willis said.

On cloud nine as expected, Willis pocketed over $18,000 this past weekend on both “Trouble” and her other horse, Country Corona.

“We just bought “Trouble’s” full sister who is coming 2, and sent her off to get broke and maybe run on the track some. We still haven’t seen her in person, but we are really hoping that she lives up to brother’s standard!”

Kaley Bass & Suzanna Hill Earn Trip to National Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Kaley Bass and her great gelding Wonders Cowboy Dan topped the Southeastern Circuit Finals, held Nov. 9-11 in Davie, Fla., and qualified for her first RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo. She will be joined by Southeastern Year-End Champion Suzanna Hill.

Bass and Cowboy placed second in the first go and won the second go en route to the average championship and $7,625.

"He did good for how old he is," said Bass, who hails from Kissimmee, home of the RNCFR. "He's getting up there. He's coming 18."

In typical Cowboy fashion, the rodeo veteran gelding stayed solid and adapted to conditions as they changed. He also picked up his pace throughout the event.

"The first run I always make on him is always a mediocre run; it's not as fast," she explained. "As the week goes on he gets faster. His first run was good and clean. Friday night, the ground got a lot faster. My last go-round run, the ground was a little bit different; it was a little bit looser. I think if he wouldn't have thrown his head up on the third barrel, I think we could have been a little bit faster. He did good all three runs. He's just so consistent. That's why I never want to go get on my mare, Girl, because he's just too easy."

Bass chose to focus on her circuit because of Cowboy's age and the challenges of hauling with her 2-year-old daughter Navy.

"Traveling isn't that easy anymore," said Bass, who actually started out the season on Girl Pal Wonder and didn't climb on Cowboy until the end of May because he was out with an injury. "It was a lot easier on him and a lot easier on me."

She said her travels are more "play it by ear" than anything these days.

"I might go to Fort Worth and stuff like that if I think he's feel-

Since qualifying for the NFR from 2012 to 2014, Bass has spent the past couple of years raising her daughter and riding horses for Cowboy and Girl's breeder Se'Belle Dymmek. Both horses are by Wonders Pal out of Jackies Cowgirl Bar, by Cowboy Dans Bar.

"I'd like to thank her for always helping me out and supplying me with good horses," said Bass, who also wanted to thank Triple Crown Feed for their sponsorship. "I absolute love her horses."

Suzanna Hill of McDavid, Fla., will also be making her first appearance at the RNCFR.

"It was a good year, lots of memories made," said Hill.

She had a tumultuous year with her tough gelding Cee Booger Man CL ("Bo") setting the world on fire early in the year, only to have to have an injury sideline at the heart of the summer.

"He had a really good winter and spring and was able to hang on to it when he was out for about four months," said Hill. They won

Great Lakes Circuit Sends Lacinda Rose & Alexis Baratka To National Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Lacinda Rose of Willard, Mo., swept the Great Lakes Circuit, winning both the Finals, held Nov. 9-11 in Louisville, Ky., and year-end championship. Great Lake Circuit Rookie Champion Alexis Baratka of Phillips, Wis., finished second in the year-end standings and will join Rose in Kissimmee, Fla., for the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo.

Rose pocketed $7,545 for winning the average and won $25,747 on the season.

"My husband made it last year, so I got to sit and watch," said Rose, who is sponsored by Prime Performance Nutrition, CSI Saddle Pads, Coats Saddlery, A&D Equine Dentistry and Boot-Daddy.com. "I've got my game plan down. I'm ready. April can't get here fast enough!"

At the Circuit Finals, Rose and her talented 9-year-old gelding RR Meradas Real Deal turned in the fastest time of the rodeo to win the first round and proceeded to place in the remaining two rounds to win the average.

"The first go, I was first gunner out and that was the fastest run of the weekend," said Rose. "It was a really good run. Some of the girls had some ground trouble, but he just doesn't usually have trouble with anything like that. The second run I was 3/10ths slower, but I did place. The last run I was a 1/10th off my first run."

Real Deal, who bred by Rose's father-in-law Philip Rose, is by Lover Boy Merada out of Zan Roan Jax Jo, by Zan Gold Jackson.

$18,508 on the season and picked up $2,640 for winning fourth in the average at the Circuit Finals.

Bo had a bone chip displace in his fetlock and had to have surgery.

"His last run was in the middle of June, but he didn't have surgery until July 12 because we were out west, and I couldn't get him back to our vet," she explained. "I got back on him eight weeks after that. I just took it really easy. I was really good about hand walking him and adding a panel to his pen every couple of days. About middle of September, I got back on him and started working him back up."

Hill had Bo back for the Circuit Finals.

"My vet said the surgery went great and I would probably have him back for the Circuit Finals," she said. "He's sound and feels great. I took him to a jackpot about three weeks before the Circuit Finals and just loped him through. He handled all three runs at the Circuit Finals great. It was great to have him back."

The 10-year-old gelding, by GB Cee Booger Red out of Ms Lady Four, by Figure Four Fritz, was bred by Hill's boss Claude Lipscomb and his wife Carole of Black & Blue Quarter Horses.

"He was actually roped on before I started riding for him," she said. "He was actually one of the first horses I started on the barrels when I went to work for him. He came along really fast."

Just as Bo really started doing well, Hill found out she was pregnant, and the gelding was sold to Sheri Jones.

"She hauled him, seasoned him and finished him up," Hill said. "She did good on him the year she had him. We wanted him back really bad and she let us by him back."

The past two years, Hill made the Professional Cowboys Association Finals—the large amateur association on the Gulf Coast—on Bo, and this is the first year she concentrated on the pro rodeos.

"He's had a pretty good three years," said Hill, who wanted to thank her farrier Clyde Williams, the numerous veterinarians who helped get Bo sound and her sponsors—Black & Blue Quarter Horses, FlowBoot, Horse Hydrator, Ortho Equine, Seminole Wellness Feeds, Summerdale Western Store, Draw It out Veterinary

Strength Liniment and OE Nutra. "He's won a lot."

Hill said she has no idea what her plans will be for 2018.

"I'll probably just stay in my circuit," she said. "We have such a big winter and spring down here, it's really hard to leave. I might go to Fort Worth, San Angelo and Odessa, places he did well at last year, but we'll see."

He was initially trained as a heading horse by Rose's husband Adam, who also qualified for the RNCFR. Rose started him on the barrels as a 4-year-old and was rodeoing on him at the end of his fifth year. He's had two mini-vacations from barrel racing during Rose's two pregnancies, but carried Adam to checks as a head horse during that time.

Rose, a mother of four ranging in ages from 1 to 15, stays busy as her oldest two daughters also rodeo, so she's got to plan her rodeoing accordingly, but she'll likely go more outside her circuit.

"I'd like to get into some of the limited rodeos," she said. "I think my horse would do really well at Houston. I'd like to win as much as I can at as few of rodeo I have to. My husband team ropes so I just kind of go where he goes. He said we're going to hit it pretty good this year. I'd love to, but we'll just have to see. With four kids, school and rodeo, it's pretty hard to get everywhere I need to be."

Veterinary technician Alexis Baratka will join Rose in Kissimmee. She finished the year second in the standings with $16,807 and was fourth in the average at the Circuit Finals, earning $1,347.

Baratka did most of her winning on Queen Red Cash ("Lucy"), but a last-minute abscess kept her out of competition. So, defending Great Lakes Finals and Year-End Champion Jordan Moore offered her great gelding CCR Ring Of Fire ("Ringo").

"This was my first circuit finals and I was unprepared," laughed Baratka. "It was about a half-hour before the first performance, and I was walking to go get my grand entry horse, which I had also borrowed, and Jordan offered me Ringo. I was a little bit speechless. I asked if she meant her other horse and she said, 'No, I mean Ringo.' It was a really selfless act that she didn't have to do. I don't even know how to thank her or pay that forward."

Baratka's journey to the Circuit Finals began in April 2016, when she filled her WPRA permit in one month on Lucy, whom she purchased from Stacy Bevans two years early. Lucy, 11, is by Chief Red Rock out of Lil Cash Advance, by Dash McCall.

Baratka decided to wait until 2017 to buy her card because couldn't go during the summer due to an 8-week internship that she needed to complete to finish her degree for her veterinary technician certification.

She started off her rookie season with a bang winning a couple of rodeos and placing at others until she hit a dry spell.

"I was ready to quit, then the beginning of June swung around and we started placing at almost every rodeo we went to," she recalled. "In July, the biggest weekend in our circuit came around with Spooner, Wis., Hamel and Isanti, Minn., and I was the only one to place at all three of those. I placed at Mitchell, S.D., which was really big for us. Then Lucy got sick. She was in the critical care until for a couple of days."

Baratka hit another little dry spell, before finishing the year strong.

"My goal was rookie of the year (in the circuit). When things started rolling, the circuit finals became a goal. I wanted to win rookie and win one rodeo. I won rookie and won four rodeos, made it to the circuit finals, qualified for The American, and made it to Kissimmee. It was a record year," said Baratka, who wanted to thank her parents, Pam Bound, Chris Ables and her sponsors Lucky Combination Co., Horse Hydrator, Flair Equine Nasal Strips, Med-Vet Pharmaceuticals, Culver's and Wisconsin Equine Clinic & Hospital.

Headin' For Home

by Sherry Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

It seems like I'm going through a season of having God arrest me at every turn. And it's hard. I THOUGHT I was doing pretty good, but He keeps checking me up. What's up with that?

It's called love. He loves me enough to correct me. Now, He's not breaking my legs or wrecking my car. (I have proven I can do that on my own, but that's another article). He's nudging me off the path I'm on and getting me on His path. Nudge #1. In my heart, He started urging me to STOP being INFECTED by the world. Instead, He was drawing me to AFFECT the world I'm in. How do you do that? You let God on the inside of you bring goodness to people around you. We can do that! YOU probably already do!

Nudge #2. I know that God tells us to forgive. And I do. I want God's forgiveness, so I'm giving forgiveness. BUT. God showed me in Luke 6:27-31, that I'm to not only forgive but I'm to love my enemies. And I'm to do good to those who hurt me.....and bless them.....and pray for them.....It just seems so unreasonable! LOL! Obviously to God, forgiving them is not enough. We are to heap blessings on our enemies. It will do them good and it will do us good. Isn't that just like God? He will turn a mess into a blessing for all involved. I'm on it!!!
