Pedone Peels the Paint in Greg Olson Memorial Slot Race

By Hope Raley

There's an old saying that goes like this- "It takes a village"; and Ryann Pedone is always very quick to credit her 'village' with every single one of her wins, and this weekend was no different after she won first and second in the Greg Olson Memorial Futurity Slot Race.

Pedone piloted StreakTaFameNRoyalty and Elmos On Fire to the tune of $16,000 in just the slot race alone and both horses also placed in the rounds of the futurity.

StreakTaFameNRoyalty is a 4-year-old stallion by A Streak Of Fling and out of Ms Dash Ta Fame by Dash Ta Fame. "Royal" is owned by Bruce and Linda Stenerson and was sent to Pedone last year while she was in Arizona for the same futurities.

Elmos On Fire is also a 4-years-old, a gelding by Firewaterontherocks and out of Vf Elmers Lil Sis by Burrs First Down. "Elmo" was bred, raised and is owned by Shoppa Ranch.

"Both horses are incredible and have been a lot of fun to train and now jockey. Both are very athletic and love to run barrels," explained Pedone. "Both aim to please and are kind."

The excitement Pedone had in her voice was hard to miss as she explained the two runs that left her first and second in a very tough slot race.

"Royal was rolling to the first barrel and I mistimed him on the first, but he kept moving which certainly helped us. He grabbed a lot of ground on second, and I had to hike my leg on the third barrel to keep from hitting it. He never quit with his forward motion which I believe helped us shut the clock off the way that we did." "Elmo was running a little harder than normal, and I also missed my timing on our first barrel causing him to go up the pen some. Besides that, our run was smooth, besides a funny step on the back side of the third barrel."

Running a 17.326 on Royal and a 17.373 on Elmo was just what Pedone needed to find herself next to some big checks in the winner's circle.

"I was very pleased! Coming to Arizona every year has been such a wonderful experience, and I am convinced that I get better every year as a jockey after being in Arizona," Pedone explained. "I jockey-up and really focus on improving my riding while in Arizona. I also get a lot of one-on-one time with all the horses I bring, which is equally as important as anything else."

During the week, Pedone does a lot of long trotting and tuning on herself.

"Along with long trotting, I also work a lot on my body position and my signals. I am constantly working at getting all my horses in tune with my body and whatever signal I am relaying to them. Other than that, I only work barrels probably twice a week, specifically on these two futurity colts."

Highpoint Performance Horses Open House Coming Soon

Highpoint Performance Horses will be holding an Open House to showcase their stallions and facilities Saturday, February 3, 2018 from 12-4 pm at their Pilot Point, TX location. The barrel racing stallions to be showcases are A Dash 'Ta Streak, A Streak Of Fling, Dashin Dynamo, Feel The Sting, Hp Dash 'Ta Fiesta, NNN Firewater Alive, Shawne Bug Leo, Slick By Design and Slye By Design.

Several speakers will be featured who will cover topics vital to people competing in barrel racing.

Dr Randel Raub, Sr Vice President of Kentucky Equine Research, will be speaking on "Nutritional Management for Respiratory Health". Topics will be on bleeders and the use of Lasix.

Dr. Karen E Davison, Director-Equine Technical Solutions for Purina Animal Nutrition, and Scott Campbell, BS Equine Specialist, will be talking about Nutritional Support for Optimal Muscle Function and Gastric health in performance horses. Topics will be Muscle Recovery in barrel horses as well as Ulcers in barrel horses. Lecture schedule:

- 12pm with Dr. Randel Raub
- 1 pm With Dr. Karen and Scott
- 2 pm Dr. Randel will repeat the 12 pm lecture
- 3 pm Dr. Karen will repeat 1 pm lecture.

There will be a full lunch for all attendees and goody bags with lots of fun stuff and a lot of discounts and product coupons for the first 400 people to show up. There will be drawings for free & discounted breedings throughout the day. The barns are all heated so the Open House will be going on either rain or shine. Highpoint Performance Horses welcomes everyone to come see their stallions and also of course their exotic animals!

The address for Highpoint Performance Horses is 11015 Cole Rd, Pilot Point, TX. To RSVP email Christi at christi@highpoint-performance.com.

National Western Stock Show

Rodeo gets off to a rousing start

By Susan Kanode - For the National Western Stock Show

Opening day of the National Western Stock Show has featured three action-packed rodeo performances that have had fans on the edge of their seats for the last seven years.

Known as Super Saturday, the first performance features contestants representing rodeos across the country for the Cinch Jeans World Team. Beginning at 11 a.m., 10 bareback riders, steer wrestlers, saddle bronc riders, barrel racers and bull riders competed to represent the "World" in the semifinals.

The second performance kicked off at 3:30 with the same events, but these contestants were part of CenturyLink's Colorado Team. The top four in each event for each team advanced to the semifinals which started at 8 p.m.

The tournament format narrowed the field from 10 to four, then one from each team. The best world contestant competed against the best from the Colorado team, going head-to-head for an $8,000 winner-take-all purse in each event.

To be part of the World team, contestants were invited to represent rodeos in North Platte, Nebraska; Guymon, Oklahoma; Rapid City, South Dakota; Cheyenne, Wyoming; Austin, Texas; Fort Worth, Texas; Calgary, Alberta; Dodge City, Kansas; San Angelo, Texas; and Houston, Texas.

For the Colorado team, three contestants represented the National Western Stock Show Rodeo in each event. Additionally, the following rodeos participated: Loveland; Pueblo, Greeley; Estes Park; Elizabeth; and Colorado Springs. To complete the 10-person roster, a contestant was invited as a wildcard.

Carly Richardson had a mere tenth-of-a-second edge to win the barrel racing title for the world team over Colorado team's Sydney Blanchard. Richardson stopped the clock in 15.745 seconds aboard her 11-year-old gelding named Money. Richardson will be back here to compete in the Women's Professional Rodeo Association barrel race during the rodeo on January 19th and 20th.

"I'm pretty excited about this," Richardson said. "Today was good practice for us. After making three runs in one day, I think we will all sleep good tonight."

Champion: 1 Carly Richardson, 15.745, $8,000

Dunning Gets it Done at Greg Olson Memorial

By Hope Raley

Montana was represented wonderfully this past weekend at the Greg Olson Memorial Futurity held in Buckeye, Arizona when Montana Futurity Trainer Luke Dunning piloted Montana bred and raised futurity horse TS Famously Shaken to the futurity championship.

TS Famously Shaken "Talie" is by Frenchmans Shake Em and out of Fame For Pamela by Dash Ta Fame. Bred and raised by Treasure State Quarter Horses out of Chinook, Montana, Talie was sold as a weanling through their sale to Natalie Leske from Wickenburg, Arizona.

"Natalie gets all the credit for training this great filly," explained Dunning. "Natalie started Talie as a 2-year-old and has done an amazing job with her."

Excelling very quickly in December, Natalie made the difficult decision to hand over the reins to Dunning for the Classic Equine and Greg Olson Memorial Futurities.

"Talie has a very powerful and 'all in' style and it can make her difficult to ride, so Natalie graciously asked if I would be interested in jockeying her these past two weekends. Of course, I agreed with excitement!"

In the first round, Dunning and "Talie" outran the rest of the tough field of futurity horses by over 3-tenths of a second when they posted a blistering fast run of 16.975. The next closest was Shannon Tidwell on Wood Bring Bullion with another fantastically incredible run of 17.296-seconds.

"The first run felt like it was going to clock as we were making our run, but I was pleasantly surprised when the clock read 16.9," exclaimed Dunning.

After their knockout run in the first round, Dunning knew that if they made another solid run in the second round, they would be in the hunt for the average.

With another solid run, Dunning and Talie tied for third in the

Besides being a winner on paper, Pedone is also a winner due to her graciousness to all those who help her accomplish her goals and her dreams as a futurity trainer and jockey.

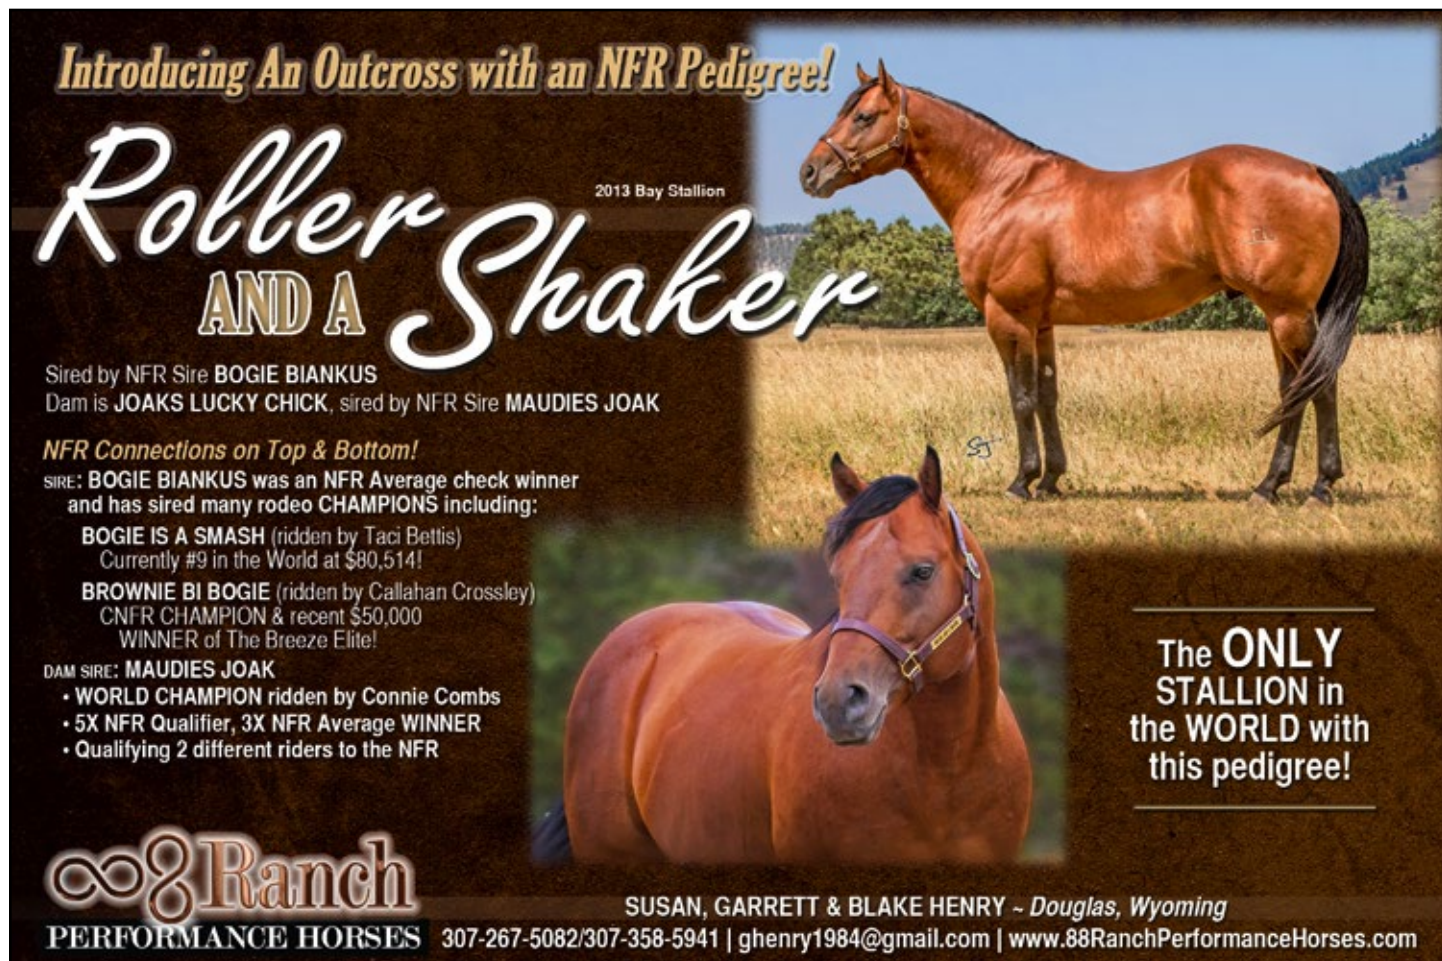

"I honestly do not know how I would accomplish anything without the help of my 'people,'" said Pedone. "From my owners who allow me to ride such amazing horses, to my intern Maddie Kempf, Walz Performance Horses for their hospitality while in Arizona, all the people who work back at home for me including Jody Green and Sierra Emmett, my brother, Lee, who helped me drive to Arizona and back, my dad for being the best dad ever, my farrier Clint Sherlin, my boyfriend and vet Don Lee with Double X Equine. And most importantly, BRN4D, their staff and to all the people at South Buckeye Equestrian who help run these futurities so smoothly and second round with a 17.326. With a total of 34.30 on two, the dynamic duo had the average won by over 2-tenths of a second ahead of Vauna Walker and French Goodbye.

"We were incredibly grateful and very excited after seeing our time. The stars just happened to align for us this past weekend and we ended up winning the futurity as well as the Double Crown!" With the talent and precision Dunning exhibited these past two weekends, it is hard to believe that this was his first time winning the Greg Olson Memorial! The modest and humble trainer has many accomplishments on his resume, but he is just as excited about a win today as if it were his very first win ever.

"I have to thank Natalie for trusting me with this filly. Most people probably don't know this, but this was extra special because I had the opportunity to ride her sire, Frenchmans Shake Em, as well as her maternal brother, TS Sunnymademefamous," Dunning explained. "Both were extremely talented athletes, just like Talie!" Prior to the last two weekends, Dunning's primary focus was getting to know Talie and forming a bond with her.

"A relationship with all our horses is very important to us, and I wanted to make sure that Talie knew me as well as she could before we entered the arena as a team."

Dunning was quick to thank the rest of the 'village' that had to do with this special win, including Dennis George of G Bar G Saddles, Dr. Ellis Farstvedt, DVM with Performance Equine Specialists, wife Heather Dunning, Judy Myllymaki, Sue Smith and Bo Hill. Lastly, Dunning wanted to make sure to thank BRN4D and Buckeye South Equestrian for the well-ran event and fast ground, and Roo Hide Saddlery for Talie's new custom fit saddle!

Langdon and Dashin Louie Capitalize in Odessa

Q&A With Taylor Langdon

BRR: Walk us through your run at Odessa...

Langdon: Dashin Louie "Louie" was incredible, it was his second run of the 2018 rodeo season and he came out firing on all cylinders! I could not fault him, he was outstanding. I am so thankful to have been along for the ride!

BRR: Can you describe the experience and feeling of winning at one of the first big rodeos of the 2018 season?

Langdon: I was definitely on cloud 9, what a way to start the year and what a great rodeo to win right at the start! Not only does it pay great but that money counts for circuit money for me, so that makes it even more exciting! We are hoping to take it one run at a time and hopefully keep up the momentum!

BRR: What can you tell us about your horse Dashin Louie and what makes him so special?

Langdon: Louie is truly a special horse, not only for his extraordinary personality, but for his athletic ability, I call him my little gray rocket because of how incredibly fast he is. He is a one of a kind horse for sure, and I am truly thankful for having the chance to be a part of his journey, along with having him to be a part of mine. Louie and I have come a long ways since I bought him in August 2017; it definitely took us a bit to figure each other out and learn the quirks. I am very proud of where we are today after a lot of time spent learning each other!

BRR: What did you do to prepare yourself and your horse for this rodeo to have him running so well this early in the year?

Langdon: This was only his second run back since the WPRA finals, he had become ill and we had to give him time off, so the fact he is coming back so strong makes me so happy, and knowing he feels like his old self is icing on the cake! All we did to prepare was try to have Louie in good shape so he wouldn't get hurt and to work him to get him sharpened up. He is pretty easy to deal with!

BRR: What is your most common riding/training schedule (times per wk/type of riding, type of riding etc.) with your horse leading up to a rodeo like this?

Langdon: Usually I try to exercise them everyday, I like to give them a day off after a run so they can rest and recuperate. I usually don't drill them a lot unless it's right before a run or if we need to work out some kinks. I do a lot of long trotting and loping during their exercise routines along with staying round and bendy!

BRR: What are your 2018 rodeo plans?

Langdon: We plan on taking it one run at a time and hoping to

First Frontier Fire -- Mulford & Chestnut Head to RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Christina Mulford of Franklinville, N.J., made the most of her First Frontier Circuit Finals Rodeo debut, sweeping the Jan. 11-13 event in Harrisburg, Pa., for $9,045. She will be joined at the RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo in Kissimmee, Fla., this spring by last year's First Frontier Champion Wendy Chestnut, who finished second in the year-end standings.

Mulford rode Panamascharlieharly ("Harly"), owned by Joe and Judy Merola. The 18-year-old gelding is by the legendary Panama Edition out of Special Triangle, by Hawkin's Special (TB).

"About a year ago, they asked me if I would ride him for them," Mulford explained. "This last year was our first season together."

The historic Cowtown Rodeo in Woodstown, N.J., with their weekly rodeos, was their main run.

"He set a new arena record there," said Mulford, who works as an accountant for a dermatology corporation. "We were the Cowtown Season Champions."

Mulford, grew up in a non-horse family, but did grow up running barrels.

"I just kind of fell into it," she said. "I grew up going to youth rodeos and Quarter horse shows. Cowtown was always the local rodeo and that's all I wanted to do as soon as I was old enough to know how to do it."

She said that Harly was the first time she had a high enough caliber horse to make the Circuit Finals. She went in second in the standings, just $420 behind Chestnut. They proceeded to win all three rounds with runs of 14.72, 14.75 and 14.77 from second, 11th make each run count. I'm fortunate enough to have made it into San Antonio and Houston so between Louie and Vegas (Vegas Fire-fighter) I think this year will be the best one yet, I am very thankful and blessed to ride such wonderful horses!

Mulford said she tried not to think about anything beyond the run at hand.

"Mom started to tell me Saturday morning, 'You know, I've been calculating,' I said, 'You can do all the calculating you want. I don't even want to know! You can keep track for you, but tonight's a whole other rodeo, a whole other run. I just don't want to know that kind of stuff,'" she laughed.

Mulford said there are so many people she would like to thank for helping her earn her championship that she said she didn't want to forget to mention anyone.

"So many people have helped me," she said. "And, it wasn't just at the Circuit Finals. It was the whole season through. I think it's unfair to name one or a couple—my family, my friends, my boyfriend, and of course the Merola's for offering me Harley. Everybody has helped me in so many ways."

Mulford said she hasn't figured out her travel plans for Kissimmee or what next season will be like.

"I'm still trying to process everything," she said. "I'm just thrilled that we're going. I haven't even thought that through yet—rodeo you're way down."

Chestnut, who won year-end and finals titles at last year's First Frontier Circuit Finals, is making her second trip down to Kissimmee with her gritty, 8-year-old mare Sun Frost Merridoc ("Lucky"). They finished second in the year-end standings and Circuit Finals Average after placing second in the first round, fourth in the second and third in the third round.

"She struggled a little with the ground," said Chestnut, who pocketed $5,275. "I think everybody did, except Christina, who was on fire and smoked us all. The second go-round, she slipped pretty good on the second barrel. She just kept being lucky and placed in all three go-rounds. It was a good circuit finals. I wish it would have been a little bit better, but I'm not complaining."

Chestnut, who left the corporate world to focus on her barrel racing a few years back, purchased Lucky, a daughter of RNJ Heckofafrenchman, by Frenchmans Guy out of RNJ Ellen, by the Merridoc son Corrad, as a barely broke 3-year-old.

"I bought her from Pond Hill Ranch, here in Vermont," she said. "She came from out West originally. She had just turned 3 and had about 20 days on her. She wasn't really broke. She was just a cute, little horse. I put her on the pattern and you could tell she was pretty special. She took to it pretty quickly and things snowballed from there."

This year, Chestnut and Lucky also won the American Pro Rodeo Associations' Finals and Year-End Championship and qualified for their first International Finals Rodeo as well. The APRA rodeos are all co-sanctioned with the International Pro Rodeo Association, so Chestnut purchased that card too last year.

Chestnut, who also hosts barrel races at her Poultney, Vermont, home, spends most of her winter near Ocala, Fla. She'll return to Vermont after the RNCFR. She's sticking with same game plan that's got her where she is today in 2018.

"I think the plan I've been running the past two years has been working for me," she said. "I'm going to stay right with that plan!"

She wanted to thank her husband Bob, "He drives a lot of miles with me and is great support," and World Champion Barrel Racer and clinician Connie Combs, "She's helped me a lot with barrel racing techniques and is a good mentor and friend."

Frozen Finalists—Montana Sends Day and Anzick to RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Ashley Day and Shelly Anzick earned their trip to the warm, sunny RAM National Circuit Finals Rodeo (RNCFR) in Kissimmee, Fla., after running in single digit temperatures at the Montana Circuit Finals Rodeo, held Jan. 12-14 at the Four Seasons Arena in Great Falls, Mont.

Day, Volborg, Montana, and her tough, homebred mare Queen Of Bullets (“Easy Button”) topped the Circuit Finals to earn her first trip to the RNCFR. Anzick, the 2005 Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo Champion, and Scooten Ta Fame (“Scooter”) held on to the standings lead to win the Year-End Championship.

With $4,183 won prior to the MCFR, Day was actually 13th in the circuit standings. When Mary Walker’s World Champion Perculatin (“Latte”) got hurt this summer, she went home to Texas and didn’t make enough rodeos to meet the non-resident circuit count, which opened the spot for Day.

“I wasn’t 100 percent in rodeo mode going into the circuit finals,” said Day, who tries to keep her rodeo horse pipeline going by having a futurity horse every three years or so. “I did a lot of the futurities last and year and didn’t rodeo a ton.”

It didn’t help that Easy Button, her 11-year-old mare, came up sore after their last rodeo of the season.

“She’s been off since October,” she explained. “I found out she was hurt at Bozeman. I went to get my rodeo count in and she didn’t run good. I took her home and she was sore in her front feet. I didn’t know how this would go since she hadn’t been run since then.”

Day spent a few weeks in Arizona legging the mare back into shape before the MCFR.

“I made one run on her down there and she felt really good,” she said. “I just kept exercising her after that because I didn’t want anything to happen to her after that! I was just super stoked that she was healthy again.

“She always works and if she doesn’t I know something is off. As long as she was feeling good enough to run, that’s all I needed to know. I didn’t really have to go to any jackpots.”

At the MCFR, Day and Easy placed second in the first and third rounds to win the average and $6,907, which counts toward the 2018 WPRA World Standings.

Day was pleased with how Easy worked on the cock-eyed pattern set on a basketball court.

“It is tricky,” she said. “I was glad that they let us have barrel practice. She likes to turn barrels, so I don’t like to have her in the arena a lot and show her the barrels. She just gets closer and closer it seems. But, I’m glad they had practice because the angle to first and third is interesting.

“She just went in there and worked every time and was super honest. She didn’t get too close and she let me drive her to wherever the barrels were. It is a tricky set up, but she handled it really good.”

Bred by her father Bud Williams, Easy is by the family’s Frenchmans Guy son, Frenchmans Bullet, out of Days’ high school and college rodeo mount, Blue Cherokee Queen, by Sonny’s Go Buck.

She wanted to thank her father for supplying her with horses—“his breeding program is what I run and has been the cornerstone of the horses I have,” and her husband Radley, “for letting me drive around far more than I should.”

As far as making the drive down to Florida, Day isn’t quite sure of her plans yet. She’s entered Bismarck and Rapid City, S.D., but hasn’t looked into making southern rodeos on her way south yet.

“We’re trying to make a plan,” she said. “I might go down a couple of weeks before (the RNCFR) and hit some rodeos in Texas. Take somewhat of a scenic drive and see what we come up with. I haven’t even really looked at a schedule, and I don’t know what’s actually hittable. I don't normally head that direction."

Anzick was in a bit of dogfight for the yearend championship. She wasn't able to get on her great horse Scooter until late July as he was still recovering from being rammed by a bucking bull at the Fort Worth Stock Show in 2016.

"I didn't get him back until the last weekend in the July," she said. "He won Helena, Missoula, Bozeman, 2nd at Billings and 2nd in Kalispell. In about 30 days, he shot me right to the top of the Montana Circuit."

Unfortunately, they tipped a barrel at Baker, Mont., that would have given them a little cushion going into the MCFR. At Great Falls, they tipped in the first round, but came back determined, winning both the second and third rounds with the fastest runs of the rodeo.

"It was kind of heartbreaking hitting that barrel," said Anzick, who resides in Shepherd, Mont. "It was fast, but the ground was a little bit sticky. You don't know that until you go, and I was the first one to run. Then we had to toughen up and go back and get down and dirty on my next runs. My first barrel was what barrel racers dream of; it was exhilarating. It was cool how he turned that barrel like that."

Scooter, a 13-year-old gelding by Dash Ta Fame out of the Kipadeucy mare The Buzz Machine, has been Anzick's banner carrier since the loss of her 2006 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier 2005 DNCFR Champion Harneys Last Look ("Buster"). He was putting her in contention for another NFR run when he was injured.

"I don't know what the heck it was, but we finally got him all healed up," she said of the horrific accident at Fort Worth in 2016. They had just made a fourth-place run in the first go, when a bull escaped into the warmup pen. Scooter was violently attacked—rammed in the rump and ribs. Even though, Scooter came back to win the second round, it was clear a few rodeos later, he wasn't right.

"It was pretty bad," said Anzick, who thought the initial hits broke his back. "He was gone over head to toe; it had to be something deep inside that he just had to stand around and heal. I got off of him for a while and when I tried to get back on him, he still wasn't right. We just decided to give him the time he needed. When I jumped back on him this year, he felt like himself again. "He's not too crazy about bulls anymore and I don't blame him. They were loaded in the alley that I had to run up at Circuit Finals and he didn't miss a beat. He scooted right in there. I'm really happy about that, having him do that three times in a row."

Unfortunately, the Montana Circuit Finals money won't be in time for Anzick to enter San Antonio, but she will get to go most of them—Denver, Fort Worth and San Angelo—before Kissimmee. As far as making a hard push for another NFR, Anzick said he plans have changed for Scooter.

"He's a warrior, let me tell ya'," she said. "When I get to go and make a run on that horse, I just enjoy it. My plan has changed since going so hard that one year. Now I put him where I know he does good and enjoy it. I do have one goal, I'd like to do good at Cheyenne. My other horse did well there, and it was a lot of fun. The first year, I took Scooter he ran a 17.2 and just grazed a barrel. I think he can do well there again."

Fearless by Lisa Lockhart

As the industry's top money earner, 11 NFR qualifications, four Canadian Professional Rodeo Championships, and two RFD-TV's the American titles, Lisa Lockhart needs no introduction as a barrel racing icon.

At Martin Saddlery, it is always important to us to have key partnerships with trusted professionals that aid in ensuring we provide competitors and trainers with quality products. For that reason we are excited to announce our newest partnership with Lisa Lockhart.

Throughout her successful career, Lisa has developed a consistent program for her horses' health, training, and competition. She also has specific preferences for her saddle. With our standards, we believe we can take her saddle design to the next level.

Fearless by Lisa Lockhart is a superior saddle of Lisa's same design with elevated innovation and features quality at its finest. One of the key features is the balanced seat so riders can "be fearless".

ProRodeo Sports News Goes Digital

In order to continue to bring fans and competitors the best coverage in rodeo, the ProRodeo Sports News is going digital to keep readers updated 24/7 on the latest rodeo news. And for a limited time, the PSN is free online.

A new PSN will be online digitally in flip-book format for mobile phones, tablets and computers every two weeks to keep fans updated on the latest rodeos, events and stories. And because the digital version will be online, it can be updated continually to keep the rodeo world apprised of any changes to the rodeo schedule and Business Journal.

Not only will PRCA members and subscribers get 24 digital issues annually, but they'll also get 12 printed issues.

The printed edition of the PSN will be published once a month and will be a combination of the digital magazines. It will list upcoming rodeos, highlight and feature cowboys and livestock, and will continue to deliver the best rodeo coverage in the industry.

Look for the PSN now on prorodeo.com.

Taylor Tabbed PRCA CEO

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association has named George Taylor its Chief Executive Officer.

Taylor is a former executive with Caterpillar, where he was most recently a company officer and vice president with responsibility for the Marketing & Digital Division. Taylor takes over for Karl Stressman, who retired as PRCA Commissioner after nine years at the helm. Taylor will begin his job as PRCA's CEO on Jan. 22.

"I'm honored and humbled to have the opportunity to lead an organization with the history and the brand recognition of the PRCA," Taylor said. "It's a dream for me to be involved and I couldn't be more excited about the future potential for our membership and the PRCA team."

Over his 19 years with Caterpillar, Taylor, 56, also served as Chief Marketing Officer and President of Caterpillar Venture Capital, where he and his team drove enterprise brand, innovation and digital transformations for the industry-leading Fortune 50 Company. Before working for Caterpillar, Taylor had extensive executive experience with IBM. He holds an M.B.A. from the University of Illinois and a B.S. in Computer Science from Illinois State University.

"I have had the opportunity to work for two iconic global companies during my career and I believe the PRCA is yet another example of an iconic organization representing the best in the sports and entertainment industry," Taylor said.

Taylor has built a reputation as a big-picture thinker who can manage and inspire people on a day-to-day basis. He's also known for his positive attitude and forward thinking, and he's keenly aware of how digital solutions impact customers and business.

Among his early goals, Taylor wants to hear from PRCA members.

"First of all, I am going to spend time listening to the membership of the PRCA and the staff to prioritize initiatives that will move us forward," Taylor said. "Secondly, I think that we need to physically and digitally innovate both the customer and member experiences. We have to keep advancing our sport to drive fan and membership engagement. Leveraging digital technologies and rodeo content will be an important aspect of that. Lastly, PRCA needs to continue to expand rodeo's reach to increase our fan base and deliver the Western lifestyle experience around the globe. In the end, it's about continuing to grow revenue and the PRCA ProRodeo brand for the benefit of its members."

Keith Martin, the Chairman of the PRCA Board of Directors, praised the hiring of Taylor.

"George's business acumen and his ability to work with so many different types of people are going to be really strong attributes, because in our organization that's really needed," Martin said. "We appreciate his financial, digital and marketing strengths, and those things all enter into being a good fit for us, taking us into the next century. His communication skills are excellent, and I think that's needed so much in our organization. Karl (Stressman) did a great job and left us in good shape, and the whole PRCA Board helped that endeavor. This is taking us to the next level."

Before moving to Colorado Springs, Taylor and his wife, Chris, were living in Snowmass, Colo., where they enjoyed numerous outdoor activities, including hiking, biking and snowboarding. The Taylors have three adult children - two daughters and a son - and three grandchildren.

New Year - New Legacy

Our mission has always been to provide you and your horse the most innovative and technologically advanced products to best aid in training and competing. The Legacy System has been our best supportive and protective boot on the market, and we have revamped it to make it better than ever.

The new color-match binding offers a sleek look on your horse's leg. We also made revisions to the patented cradle fetlock system by extending the Kevlar material to the base of the boot for increased durability and long-lasting protection. The Legacy2 closures are its most impressive feature, now flexible and offers a close improved fit, feel and application.

The Legacy2 uses Legacy's original splint guard and rib for perfect alignment and aids in the prevention of crossfire and other injuries. The body is made of 100% virgin neoprene with maximum flexibility and is perforated to allow the leg to breathe and heat to escape. The bound edges help keep the boot close to your horse's leg and keep the dirt and debris out.

Last but not least, we have new styles! The classy, neutral tone Caribou is a new addition to the line and the ever so popular Cheeta has made its way as a permanent color. No more limited edition!

One thing you can always be reassured of...we have you and your horse in mind. The new Legacy2 can be found at Classic Equine dealers nationwide. For more information please visit www.classicequine.com. Cheers to 2018!
