Bottom's Up—Ryann Pedone and Toast Ta Hollywood B win Pac West Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Shoppa Ranch's Toast Ta Hollywood B got stronger with every futurity over the three weeks in Buckeye, Ariz. After finishing second in the Greg Olson Memorial Futurity the prior weekend, the 4-year-old gelding came out on top in the 124-entry, $55,262 Pac West Futurity, held Jan. 17-20.

Hollywood, along with Bratwheresmysocks, was trained by Shoppa Ranch's former resident trainer Kristin Weaver-Brown, who is expecting her second child at her new home in Seattle, Washington. Brown recommended Ryann Pedone to the Shoppas to take over as their jockey.

While Pedone, Decatur, Texas, started riding the other Shoppa horses in November, Weaver-Brown kept Hollywood as her mount for the BFA SuperStakes.

"I just picked him up a week before I came out to Arizona," said Pedone. "So, I didn't know him that well, but I knew that Kristen thought a lot of him. He's broke and really, really quiet for a Dash Ta Fame. He's just a really nice horse."

Hollywood collected $16,444 at Pac West for finishing second in the 24-entry, $40,800 4-Year-Old Slot Futurity, which was won by Greg Olson Futurity & Slot Futurity Champion Jackie Jatzlau and Good To Be The King, and winning the Futurity average with runs of 17.169 and 17.238.

"He kind of slipped on the first barrel on his first run," said Pedone. "He over-reached and pulled his shoe. I had a really nice second and third, just really smooth. The second run, I had a really smooth run."

Things started out a little rough for Pedone in Arizona.

"The first weekend out there in Arizona was very humbling," she said. "I had two colts that were scared of banners and they totally ducked, and I had three others that balked and wanted to duck. I thought this was going to be a long three weeks, but that Saturday they all went to working. Each weekend they got stronger." Even Hollywood was a little "scotchy."

"He placed second at the Greg Olson in the average, but I was having trouble with him getting up in the hole on the second barrel," Pedone explained. "The first futurity I hit barrels on him. He kept wanting to come back on top instead of keep moving forward, and it was causing him to bow off the second barrel. Josh (Harvey) had flown out for this futurity and he got on him and warmed him up for me both days. I don't know what he did but he freed him up for me."

Pedone was adamant about giving Weaver-Brown all the credit for Hollywood's training.

"She did a great job training this horse," said Pedone. "She's the one that recommended me to the Shoppas, and that was really nice of her. "Kristen had done all the work. I just jumped on. I had a make a few changes to make sure we were speaking the same language, but I think every trainer has to do that. Everything was already done. I pretty much just sat there.

"She loved that colt and she knew he was special. She really wanted to ride him. It would be really hard to have two nice colts like Hollywood and Brat and have to hand the reins over to someone else."

Pedone also wanted to thank Shoppa Ranch including Brice and Karen Manning who starts all of their horses under saddle, Outlaw Equine—Dr. Josh Harvy and Dr. Don Lee, Classic Equine, Steve and Carlee Pierce, her fitness guru Debbie Crall, farrier Sid Meyers and Josianne St. Cyr for all their help.

Now back in Texas, Pedone has a full schedule in front of her. She'll be rodeo seasoning her own horses at the winter pro rodeos.

PRCA's New made-for-TV Champions Challenge

As part of its ongoing commitment to increasing the popularity of the cowboy sport, the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association will launch a special made-for-TV series of Champions Challenge rodeos this year on Great American Country (GAC), featuring 10 top competitors in each event and the sport's best livestock.

There will be four Champions Challenge rodeos aired in a one-hour format in 2013, starting with the May 18 Redding (Calif.) event, which will air at 5 p.m. (ET) on July 7 and then be rebroadcast at 9 a.m. on July 13. Subsequent events will be held in Amarillo, Texas; Kissimmee, Fla., and Winnie, Texas. (See full schedule below.)

Each of these events, except for Kissimmee, will be held in conjunction with a regularly-scheduled PRCA rodeo and will offer $80,000 in additional prize money which, at least initially, will not be counted in the world standings.

"You have the best guys going against the best stock in a one-head event," said four-time World Champion Bareback Rider Bobby Mote. "From the competitor's standpoint that's exciting, knowing you are going against the best in every rodeo. And it's a great opportunity for the fans to watch the same guys in each broadcast. It's difficult to promote the sport when you might be seeing 12 totally different guys from one telecast to the next. That's why the (Wrangler) NFR is so unique. You are seeing the 15 best guys every night. The Champions Challenge is a step in the right direction for the sport."

Commitments have been received from all eight reigning PRCA World Champions – All-Around Cowboy Trevor Brazile, Bareback Rider Kaycee Feild, Steer Wrestler Luke Branquinho, Team Roper (Header) Chad Masters, Team Roper (Heeler) Jade Corkill, Saddle Bronc Rider Jesse Wright, Tie-down Roper Tuf Cooper and Bull Rider Cody Teel.

"This is the future of ProRodeo on television," says PRCA Commissioner Karl Stressman. "Over the last 70 years, we've tried to figure out the optimal method for TV coverage, and now we know: Showcasing our top athletes – contestants and livestock – is our greatest opportunity to create a new fan base as well as to reward our existing fans, by ensuring they see the best of the best."

The top seven finishers in each event from the 2012 world standings were automatically invited to participate. Two of the remaining three spots will go to whoever is leading the 2013 world standings and the 2013 Wrangler Million Dollar Tour standings 30 days before each Champions Challenge event.

The last spot will be awarded to the host rodeo's defending champion. If, as is the case with Kissimmee, there is no defending champion, the final spot will go to the highest-ranked competitor in the 2013 standings who is not already in the field.

The format will be a 10-person, single-round rodeo with the wins going to the fastest times and highest scores.

GAC's team of announcers for the series is the same one that works the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo each December with Jeff Medders, Joe Beaver and Butch Knowles in the booth and Suzanne Alexander handling interviews and feature inserts.

CHAMPIONS CHALLENGE SCHEDULE

She'll also be running Carlee Pierce's Kiss This Guy at the bigger buildings and outdoor arenas.

"Carlee said she doesn't really want them until they turn 7," she laughed. "I'm not trying to make the finals or anything so I'm perfect for the job. If there's a problem or a mistake I can take the time to fix it."

Open Slot Race

Lauren Crivier and her 7-year-old gelding Regal He Is topped the 14-enter, $14,280 Open Slot Race. Their victorious time of 17.150 was worth $6,140.

Up to that run, Crivier wasn't having too much fun in Arizona.

"I actually was going through a bad two weeks," said Crivier, 24. "I wasn't doing too good. He was diving, hitting barrels and not making the pattern. I was really down on myself. I just had to turn my thinking around and go all in."

Crivier spent the week prior to the slot race in Arizona, working with Reggie to keep him round in his turns and taking him on trial rides to keep him relaxed. The game changer, however, was her attitude.

"The change in my confidence was the biggest thing," she said. "If you're not in the game, they're not in the game. I told myself I'm making it through the pattern no matter what and I was going to go other there and give it my all. I guess I gave that confidence to my horse too."

By A Regal Choice out of A Classy Debutante, by A Classic Dash, Reggie was trained by Danyelle Campbell. Crivier purchased him a little over a year ago.

A graduate of the prestigious Le Cordon Blue College of Culinary Arts, Crivier is currently growing her business—Lo's To Go Catering—and trying to remodel her new home (it was lacking a kitchen of all things).

"I've just been going to the jackpots," said Crivier, who wanted to thank her mother Jan Evanston and Campbell for selling her Reggie. "I'm just trying to get my life settled now."

LOT #37 - HUNK OF LUV

2008 Gelding by High On Corona out of Dealing For Dee (Futurity & Rodeo Money Winning Barrel Horse)

We are bringing one of our best. Hunk is running barrels and heading steers and has been started on the poles. He has been clocked a handful of times and is doing awesome. He is big and strong and can move. He will eat a barrel up. Natural rate, very gentle and quiet. You can do anything you want on him. Paul Greisman is heading steers on him and he will make a rodeo horse. Doesn't hurt that he is flat gorgeous. He is also eligible for a pile of futurities and is paid in full to the Future Fortunes. You may come try him at the ranch prior to the sale with appointment.

Brooks dominates IBRA Futurity

By Julie Mankin

The futurity at the IBRA Preferred Show in Murfreesboro, Tenn., over the weekend added $7,500 and a new 2D format. Easily the dominant force in Murfreesboro was Craig Brooks. The 28-year-old futurity-horse trainer from Gainesville, Ga., won both rounds and the average aboard a 4-year-old Designer Red filly named RU Ready To Design. Brooks and “Mia” clocked a 15.650 and a 15.874 to earn $5,176.

On another 4-year-old filly, this one a daughter of Leaving Memories called Leaving Hot Memories, Brooks placed third in the average for another $1,815. He raked in roughly $1,000 more when those times placed him in the IBRA Open race on Saturday and the Masters class. That wasn’t all – he ran a third filly that took a penalty in the futurity’s first round but finished just one out of the money in Round Two.

“I’m partners with Michael and Terri Pitcher of North Carolina on that filly,” said Brooks of Mia, whom he nicknamed for the way she kicked like soccer star Mia Hamm as a baby. “They had a breeding to Designer Red and wanted to use my mare, so we partnered.” Brooks said she was nice enough her 3-year-old year and clocked a few 1D times this winter, but he honestly just thought of her as an average horse.

“I told my partner I didn’t think she was a go-round winning horse; just a consistent colt who might not be able to get there,” he said. “Then she stepped up and showed me otherwise.”

The extra large pen at Murfreesboro with the barrels set off the fences and the sticky clay ground suited her perfectly. Mia likes to be allowed to work, he said.

“She likes you to just throw her away and help a little on the backside,” he said. “I’m pretty tickled with what she did out there.” Brooks said Mia isn’t as heavy-built as other Designer Red colts he’s ridden, and doesn’t resemble the stud as much as his own mare, RU Lady Tumbo, by The Informant. The dam was one he bought to train off the track and then realized that prior laminitis rendered her more suited to be a broodmare. Brooks has one more 2-year-old out of the mare, who unfortunately passed away a couple weeks after that birth.

But he has a handful of prospects by Leaving Memories, including “Snooky,” the filly that placed third at Murfreesboro. She’s out of a Handle Bar Doc mare named HBD Hot To Tee.

“My first Leaving Memories horse, Streakin Reba, did really well;

Kyra Stierwalt has her now,” said Brooks. “I think the Leaving Memories babies have a really good mouth and kind of want to do it. I have three 2-year-olds right now.”

Brooks picked up barrel racing from his father, Morris Brooks, and has no problem remembering his first barrel race – it was on Sept. 11, 2001. He began training full-time around 2004 and today rides 10 to 15 outside horses and four to five of his own from home, where he lives with his wife, Elan, and 2-year-old son Bryton.

“Our main objective is to have futurity horses,” he said. “But we want to sell them as nice Open horses when they’re done. Any futurity money we win is just a bonus and a way to prove the horse along the way.”

Brooks is usually on the road with a trailer full of fillies more often than geldings.

“I’ll ride geldings and also stud colts for people, but I don’t buy them myself,” he said. “I think mares may put up a little more of a fight at first, but they’ll try harder for you and be grittier later on

Headin' For Home

by Mike Morrison
Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

“When I see Jesus, I’ll put in a good word for you!” The old rancher lay dying in his hospital bed but he joked and laughed with family and friends gathered around him. He showed no fear of death. In fact, he welcomed it in the knowledge of where his eternal spirit would go when he left his earthly body. He frequently asked those in his room to pray with him. But, he wasn’t always a man of faith.

This man had led a wild life for many years. I knew him. In fact, I baptized him when he decided to give his life to Jesus. He used to drink heavily, had numerous wives, financial woes and wild escapades. Then he moved into a new community when he had neighbors who were devout Christians and even held Cowboy Church at their ranch where I’ve ministered for more than a dozen years.

At first, this old rancher wasn’t interested in taking part in the spiritual life of his new Christian friends but, little by little, he was drawn by their peace and joy and trust in Almighty God. Before long, he was an enthusiastic believer who went about witnessing in his own unique way. Old friends, were amazed at the change in him as he went about giving out Bibles and telling what God had done for him. He got many of his family members saved.

So you never know what the example you set can lead to. You might be the only Gospel some will ever see. Matthew 5:16 says, “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.” If you surrender all of your life to Jesus, you’ll be amazed at the rewards you’ll reap in the here and now not to mention those in eternity. It’s the best insurance you can have!
